ISAAC COYLE SHOT TO DEATH BY ROBBERS

Country Merchant Called To Door and Killed—Tragedy Disclosed By Boys Playing

News came from Rockcastle county today that a man named Cornett had confessed to the murder of Isaac W. Coyle last Thursday night about 11 o'clock at the home of the latter three miles from Big Hill, Madison county. "Uncle Ike," as he was called, was called to his door, shot to death and robbed of between $500 and $700. News of his murder did not become known for almost 36 hours afterward. Boys playing life and seek crawled under the door of his house. One noticed blood dripping through a crack in the flooring above him. An investigation showed Mr. Coyle lying dead on the floor. A pillow had been placed under his head and a blanket thrown over him. Blankets had been hung in front of the windows in the house so that passersby might not see the gruesome picture within.

The news that came from Mr. Vernon said that three men had been arrested for the crime after a lengthy investigation. Their names were said to be McQueen, Cornett and Bowman, so Mr. Coyle, of Indianapolis, who had just attended his brother's funeral, said here in Richmond today.

He came by here accompanied by his sister, Mrs. David Gray, and Miss Florence Coyle, daughter of the dead man. His wife and three sons survive beside her, all living in Indianapolis. They are Nathan, Curtis and Isaac Coyle, Jr.

The murdered man conducted a small country store near Big Hill on the Rockcastle side of the line. He was a native of Madison county, however, and was well known all over the Berea section and here as a quiet, law abiding citizen, well esteemed by all who knew him. Neighbors said they heard a shot about 11 o'clock on Thursday night but thought nothing of it. Mr. Coyle was alone at his home at the time, his family being in the diaphanous.

HELD OVER FOR BEATING HIS BABY

Charged with beating his three-month-old daughter with his open hand and throwing her several feet to a bed, Max Plymaster, of Four Mile avenue, was held over to the grand jury under $500 bond by Judge J. Murray Smith in police court Monday night. Mrs. Chas. Plymaster testified to the cruelty of Plymaster toward the child when it cried with colic. Plymaster went to jail in default of bond.

George Hopper was given $50 fine and 30 days in jail on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated. As two policemen started out of the courtroom with him, he jerked away and it required four men to take him. He put up a hard fight and cursed and threatened to kill them. Arriving at the jail he smashed jailer Chas. Rogers' glasses off his face and it took half a dozen officers to handle him and put him in a cell. He will be tried again Friday night on a breach of the peace charge, fighting the officers, etc.

A young girl who was charged with having taken a small amount from a store here in town, was acquitted of the charge by Judge Smith.

Tractor Day Thursday

The Richmond Motor Company is announcing a big program on Thursday for the benefit of the farmers of the community. It will be Tractor Day when experts will be here and a moving picture shown, illustrating the varied possibilities of the Fordson. The work which can be done more economically in both time and money, by the use of this great farmers' machine, than in any other way, will be shown from every aspect. The demonstration will undoubtedly prove very popular with the farmers of Madison.

For 1921 it has been awarded to E. S. Munger, here shown, for his benefactions to the Birmingham Southern college, Howard college, the Y. M. C. A., and other institutions.

STORM DESTROYS TWO S. C. TOWNS

Augusta, Ga., Mar. 7.—Langley and Warrenville, two South Carolina towns 10 and 12 miles from here, respectively, were reported destroyed by storm today. Several persons are reported killed at Langley. Wire communication with the town is cut off.

At Warrenville, South Carolina, six persons were killed, according to a message from a telephone lineman who said he cut in on a broken wire to send it.

ESTILL MAY SOON VOTE ON ROAD BONDS

Reports received here are that petitions already have been circulated and an election will probably be called in the very near future on a $270,000 road bond issue in Estill county.

It is understood that the roads radiating from Irvine to the county lines of Lee, Jackson, Madison, Clark and Powell counties are under the present plans. The total mileage of the proposed work, total between 55 and 60 miles.

A considerable fund has accrued from the oil tax, from which Estill county benefits extensively, and from the 20 cent road tax, so that it is believed that it will not take care of the cost of the proposed roads and it will be necessary to vote an additional tax. The proposed road construction will give a more direct route between Irvine and Richmond than that now used.

WESTERN KENTUCKY MINERS WON'T STRIKE

Three Counties Plan To Be Mighty Busy In Event Oth-Coal Miners Go Out

(By Associated Press)
Madisonville, Ky., Mar. 7.—Union officials today announced their policy toward International District 23 to continue at work, regardless of the result of the strike vote of the soft coal miners. It is unofficially announced that the miners are in agreement largely due to a contract with the operators which does not expire until 1923. The operators see great activity in three counties of this field in the event of a strike in other fields is ordered.

Pittsburgh Coal Men To Talk To Miners

(By Associated Press)
Pittsburgh, Mar. 7.—Coal operators of the Pittsburgh district, the most important bituminous field in the country, will meet, their miners, "union or non union," to discuss a working scale. W. K. Fields, president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, said in a statement today.

SERIOUS BLAZE NARROWLY AVERTED

The handsome new bungalow of E. C. Gentry on South Second street had a close call from serious damage by fire Tuesday morning. Mrs. Gentry was doing some pressing with an electric iron when the door bell rang. She went to answer it without shutting off the current. As she was down stairs longer than anticipated, the clothes caught fire, and set a rattapatt to the lamp on fire, too. The blaze then spread to the rug, chair and other furniture. Luckily, Mr. Gentry was at home and he and his wife fought the threatened conflagration so hard they didn't stop to take time to phone for the fire department. With liberal use of water and smothering the blaze with rugs it was extinguished, but not until considerable damage had been done to the room and its furnishings.

YOUNG GIRL DIES WHILE VISITING HERE

One of the saddest deaths that has taken place in this community for some time was that of Miss Pearl Creech, the 22-year-old daughter of Rev. E. G. Creech and Mrs. Creech, of Wilfiba, Lee county, who died late Monday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Bowman, on the Irvine road. Miss Creech arrived ten days ago for a visit and was stricken with double pneumonia soon after her arrival. All that loving hands and hearts could do proved of no avail and the bright spirit fled to dwell with God who gave it. She was a beautiful character and was beloved by a large circle of relatives and friends. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved parents and the stricken aunt, who loved her as a daughter. Surviving her are her parents, several brothers and sisters. The remains will be taken to Lee county for interment.

A peculiarly sad feature of the young girl's death was the fact that her parents were unable to reach her bedside before her spirit had taken its flight. When she became desperately ill an effort was made to notify them, but as they lived six miles from the railroad, they did not get word in time to get here in time to see her before she passed away.

YOUNGSTER DIES OF PARALYTIC STROKE

Mr. and Mrs. James Burton of East Main street, have the deepest sympathy of their friends in the death of their nine-year-old son, William, who died very suddenly Monday night at 11 o'clock, having had a stroke of paralysis. The death is a great blow to the grief-stricken parents, as the child was playing on the street during the afternoon, seemingly in his usual health. Besides the parents, the child is survived by one sister and one brother. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

AMMONIA BANDIT DRESSES AS WOMAN

(By Associated Press)
Pittsburgh, Mar. 7.—Dressed as a woman and armed with a water pistol charged with ammonia, a bandit today fired at a bank messenger on a busy street as the messenger, carrying $15,000, stepped from a street car. Scores of passersby saw the struggle but thought it a street fight. The messenger, although blinded by ammonia, grappled with his assailant until a policeman arrested him. The bandit gave the name of Joseph Lindsay.

Distributing Mexican Quail

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 6.—The State Fish and Game Commission is now distributing the first 6,000 of this year's allotment of Mexican quail. The quail are imported from Mexico and distributed to farms where farmers will help to protect them while they multiply. This was done last year and it was said that the work was successful.

When Will This Stop?

(By Associated Press)
New York, Mar. 7.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed today against Charles H. Clarkson and Company, stock brokers. Their liabilities are estimated at $145,000 with assets of $70,000.

NORMAL SCHOOL GETS $27,000 ADDITIONAL

After House Restores $120,000 Lopped Off State University—Day In Legislature

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 7.—A victory for the University of Kentucky, which restored $120,000 of the $160,000 sheared from its appropriation by the budget commission report; a personal appeal to the senate by Speaker James E. Thompson, of the House of Representatives, for enactment of his taxation measure, and a proposition from Gov. Morrow, advanced as a final effort to save the road bonds as a live issue at the polls next fall, were Monday's legislative developments.

Representative Arch L. Hamilton and Harry Miller, of Fayette county, led the fight to save the university's allotment. Mr. Hamilton, from his lengthy experience and wide audience and acquaintance in the House, was an ideal champion of the cause of education, and he conducted the defense with skill and acumen, leading from some minor amendments in order to win his two main points, which were an increase of $75,000 in the appropriation proper, and an item of $15,000 to pay off an indebtedness which has been hanging over the university for about ten years, and which had not been taken care of by former sessions.

The item was occasioned by the failure of one general assembly to make the proper provision for the upkeep of the institution and the deficit occasioned thereby had been met by a public subscription of a loan by Lexington citizens.

Mr. Hamilton was seconded by Mr. Miller in handling the matter. W. P. Wallen, Joseph F. Bosworth, A. W. Doherty and Mrs. Mary Elton Flanery were among others who spoke in favor of the increase for the university.

Following the university's success, Representatives Strange and Park obtained an additional $27,000 for each of the two present years Normal schools, one at Bowling Green and the other at Richmond.

"Despite the fact that the University of Kentucky is out at least $100,000 and possibly $250,000 by this budget measure," declared Mr. Hamilton, "we have $72 more students than last year. More than 400 girls have been added away from the institution because of lack of facilities. The new budget does nothing for the engineering equipment, mentioned in the previous law."

"The $150,000 dormitory authorized by the preceding Legislature is being used exclusively for former service men."

Harry Miller said: "We have been discussing political matters. Let's lay that aside, and see if we can't co-operate together to do something for Kentucky." Mrs. Flanery said the University of Virginia is a wonderful institution because it is maintained by the "Old Dominion." She added that Michigan and Ohio have great state universities. "Why not give Kentucky a chance to reach the same height?" she asked.

The main appropriation amendment carried, 47 to 33, and the one to pay off the debt of $45,000 by 39 to 26. The Senate tabled the county superintendent direct election bill by a vote of 18 to 17. It was tied in the Senate vote. Lieut. Gov. Ballard casting the deciding ballot, which killed the bill.

When the Senate adjourned shortly before six o'clock, Speaker Thompson had been heard for more than two hours, discussing different phases of his tax bill and some amendments which he proposes shall be incorporated in the upper branch. The senate will resume consideration of the tax measure Tuesday, while the House will take up the budget bill for final disposition.

Prisoners Go To Pen

Sheriff Elmer Deatherage took eight prisoners, convicted at the recent term of circuit court, to the penitentiary at Frankfort Tuesday. They were Jarry Jones, Alonzo Harris, Cheneau Benton, Dennis Rogers, Dillard and Dewey Todd, colored, Irvine Hendricks and Lawrence Marcum.

Mrs. Margaret Finley of Indian Creek, Pennsylvania, who has been appointed road commissioner for the township to succeed her son who died recently. Mrs. Finley is seventy-four years old, the oldest woman holding public office in the Keystone state. The salary as road commissioner is only $150 a year.

LOTS OF STOCK TRADES COURT DAY

There was but one day in the Richmond horse market today. The stock market was closed and trading was held. About 5,000 cattle were sold. Prices were 1/2 cent higher than a few days ago according to quality. There wasn't much of real quality here, though. About 400 hogs were reported and there was good demand for them. Prices for $10.75 on down. About 400 sheep sold from $5 to $7.50 a head.

The horse and mule market was very active, about 300 being offered by the various traders. Luke R. Henshaw, of Shelbyville, brought over 12 mules and took back from several buyers with him. He made sales from $72 to $200.

Lead, the high figure being for a pure white mule. Mr. Henshaw, "swapped" a lot of mules for horses and "boot." He said that the market here seems a little dull and declared business is much brisker in his county or Shelby at present than it appears here. Mr. Henshaw reported that he sold a pair of choice horses the other day to Joe Hamilton, of Bloomfield, Nelson county, for $100. Henshaw is a big horse and mule buyer and trader. He said he was much impressed with Richmond and will be back here again soon with more animals.

Sandlin To Be Tried In Owsley

Robert Sandlin, who has been held in the Fayette county jail for several months at the request of Owsley county authorities, was returned to Booneville Monday to be tried for the murder of Bessie Allen, 16, on Upper Buffalo Creek, in that county, in June, 1920. Two other men already have been convicted and given prison sentences for alleged complicity in the crime. The court of appeals, however, reversed the verdict of the Owsley circuit court in three cases.

CRACK FOOT BALL PLAYER A POET

"Bill" Crutcher Submits Clever Verse, But Didn't Quite Get Answer—The Others

Some mighty clever and attractive "answers" were sent in to the Daily Register's "Munificence Art" puzzle. Miss Maude Gibson, art teacher at Eastern, sent a handsomely painted Arch. One of the best answers was a poem written by that talented young high school pupil, and crack football player, William Crutcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Crutcher. Several other excellent ones were received. Beginning with Mr. Crutcher's poem, all that are possible of reproduction here, are as follows:

More Praise for the Sheriff

Editor Marshall Vaughn, of the Berea Citizen, has some good things to say of the fine work of Sheriff Elmer Deatherage and gives a very timely warning to moonshiners, bootleggers and other law breakers. He says:

Madison county is to be congratulated upon having a fearless and an aggressive sheriff. For the last few years it has been the custom of the high sheriff of the county to treat his position as an office job and send subordinates out to do the hard work.

Mr. Deatherage has chosen the other thing. He has inaugurated a policy of doing himself whatever he would ask anyone else to do. He does not hesitate to don his over-shoes and leggings, ride on horse-back to the brink of the hollow, and scramble down the banks and up the ravine on foot to where the moonshine still is quietly smoking.

Practically every day of the current court for the last two week has been filled with trials of moonshiners, bootleggers and other "breachers" of the peace that have been brought before the court of justice by Mr.

Deatherage and his deputies.

One man said "A new broom sweeps clean." Another man said, "He ought to have gotten the moonshiner himself in one big raid he made." Mr. Deatherage is himself disappointed that he was not able to pull in some very important moonshiners in one of his recent raids,

but in spite of his precautions and wholesale slaughter of the stills some of them escaped, only to be apprehended later.

Mr. Moonshiner, your doom is sealed. We have a fearless judge on the bench at Richmond, a fearless sheriff riding the roads, and law-abiding, God fearing juries ready to sit on your case.

Put up or you will get shut up.

ACCIDENTS LAID TO U. S. PEP

Enormous Increase in Berlin Street

Mishaps Shown Since

Before War.

Berlin.—The fact that street accidents in Berlin have increased 600 per cent since 1913 has led to the suggestion that one of the causes may be the apparent effort to put American "gas"

into the city's everyday life. Two newspaper writers assert that Berliners have become too busy to heed traffic signs, and that the spirit of haste is disturbishing the general public, and that the citizens on this score are growing nervous. The reporter "the attention to make Berlin safer the look like forty-second street and Broadway."

Official reports say most of the accidents are due to speeding automobiles and careless pedestrians, who step off the sidewalks and walk the streets in every direction without once looking to see if they are in the way of vehicular traffic.

There is no continuous regulating pedestrian traffic. Even at the more crowded intersections the people cross the streets at will, taking their chances with the automobile, street cars, omnibuses, trams and horse cars. There are no traffic policemen in the German metropolis, but it has been decided to establish such force. Regarding the "security police" are doing this day.

The bicycle habit is very popular with all classes, and contributes with the motor, who ride in rapid formation. It is not uncommon to see a man riding on his back and evading clothes riding his "bike" to the theater.

BLIND WOMAN IS WONDER

Twelve years ago Mrs. M. S. Acker

of Youngstown, O., became totally blind. When the news first came to her she wept and stomped at the injustice of fate, "Why?" she says,

"One day I had a great vision—I realized that God would take care of me, even though blind. I needed my energies and concentrated on my work."

Today this blind woman does all her own housework and her shopping.

She not only cuts and stitches her own clothing and that of her children,

but also makes all of Mr. Acker's shirts. She learned typewriting in two lessons and mastered the blind system of reading in two weeks. So now she reads the magazines, keeping in touch with the world's affairs, is a member of church societies and women's clubs and attends church regularly.

London.—Monthly salary of a nurse of the disproportion between wages and the cost of living in the Russian capital is disclosed in a report just Russia by the health committee of the League of Nations.

A cake of soap in Moscow costs 8,500

rubles and nurses in the city hospital are paid 5,000 rubles a month.

An Old Fashioned Remedy

The Adair County News gives an old fashioned remedy as a cure for pneumonia. It says: Take six to ten onions according to size, and chop fine, put in a large spider over a hot fire; then add about the same quantity of vinegar, and vinegar enough to form a thick paste. In the meantime stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer five or ten minutes. Then add it to a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs, and apply to the chest as hot as the patient can bear. When this gets cold, apply another and thus continue, by repeating poultices, until the patient will lie on his back. This simple remedy has never failed to cure pneumonia, and is a safe remedy. Usually, when pneumonia is not cured, it is because the patient starts free from the chest.

Postmaster Swears Off Short Cuts After He Is Dug Out of 15-Foot Drift.

Pine Brook, N. J.—Postmaster Joseph L. Leland, of Pine Brook, N. J., took a fair shower over the fact that he had been dug out of a 15-foot drift. The last few weeks of his short cut over the mountain were the longest he ever lived through.

He was on the way to visit a relative on the other side of the mountain and decided to cut over it instead of taking the long road. He found the summit of the ridge bare of snow, but the drift was so deep that he was unable to get over it. He was dug out by a party of men, and he was so tired that he could not get over it.

CHURCHES GAIN 2,173 EVERY DAY

Federal Council's Statistics Show War Losses Being Steadily Overcome.

45,997,199 CHURCH MEMBERS

Various Religious Bodies Report 233,104 Congregations, Headed by 200,000 Ministers—Total Constituency 95,000,000.

Washington, D. C.—Every day during the last five years an average of 2,173 persons joined the various churches of America. An average of three congregations have been organized daily and the average number joining the ministry has been four and one-half persons a day.

The figures are furnished by Dr. E. O. Watson, Washington, secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The statistics show that the churches are steadily overcoming their war losses. Total church membership of the country is placed at 45,997,199, an increase of 4,070,345 over the 1916 census figures and indicates a gain of more than a million members for the preceding twelve months. The various religious bodies report 233,104 congregations, headed by 200,000 ministers. This is a gain of 5,617 congregations and 8,291 clergy over the government figures for 1916.

Where there has been much talk of a shortage of ministers, the increase in clergy has been approximately 50 per cent more than the increase in the congregations. The 233,104 difference between the two indicates a corresponding shortage of pastors.

On the persons listed officially as church members, the Roman Catholics have 17,885,046. The Catholic figures represent estimated population, including all baptized persons. Protestant bodies only count communicants.

The 30 bodies related to the Federal Council of Churches have 10,083,115 members. They have a total of 142,472 congregations manned by 113,761 clergy. Their gain in membership over the preceding five years is 1,215,325. Their total constituency is 55,812,722, a gain of 3,418,618 over the 1916 census figures.

Total "Constituency" 95,000,000. The total religious constituency of the country (including all members and "adherents") is estimated by Dr. Watson at 95,000,000 persons, ranging to different statistical methods as the various churches. These figures are estimated in accordance with statistics made by statisticians. In this last, the constituency of various bodies is:

Protestant, 74,795,220; Roman Catholic, 17,885,046; Jews, 1,120,000; Latter Day Saints (Mormons), 1,040,170. The Jewish bodies have different methods of reporting. Volume 22 of the American Jewish Year Book estimates the Jewish population of the United States at 3,300,000.

For the first time the combined Baptists have passed the combined Methodists in total membership, now having 7,827,250 members, against a Methodist membership of 7,797,391. The Lutheran bodies stand third with a membership of 2,468,645 persons and the Presbyterians are fourth with 2,381,683 members.

Largest Protestant Denomination. The Methodist Episcopal church (North) reports an increase in membership of 220,870 over the 1916 figures and 62,345 members over last year. It is the largest single Protestant communion. The Methodist Episcopal church (South) shows a gain of 30,315 members for the preceding year, its total now being 2,346,947. The Protestant Episcopal church shows a gain of 11,208 over the 1916 figures and total membership of 1,104,029.

The Salvation Army, with a reported membership of 35,920, shows an increase of only 65 persons over five years ago.

Latter available figures regarding membership of principal denominations and gains during the last five years are as follows:

Congregational, 819,225, gain 27,551; Presbyterian U. S. A. (North), 1,722,591, gain 111,110; Presbyterian U. S. (South), 3,374,558, gain 392,880; United Presbyterian, 1,605,528, gain 198,800; Society of Friends (Orthodox), 96,135, gain 3,749; Episcopal of Christ, 1,210,023, gain 16,000; Evangelical Synod of North America, 274,890, gain 64,660; Evangelical association, 100,000, gain 32,214; Christian church (American Christian convention), 97,084, gain 21,650; United Lutheran church, 701,000; Moravian (United Brethren), 21,767, gain 5,280; Reformed Episcopal, 13,022, gain 1,972; Reformed Church in America, 125,631, gain 9,295; Reformed Church in the United States, 331,329, gain 13,000; Christian Reformed church, 43,902, gain 5,234; United Brethren, 244,220, gain 15,401; United Evangelical, 30,096, gain 3,321; National Baptist convention (colored), 3,116,325, gain 177,746; African Methodist Episcopal church (colored), 551,796, gain 3,411; African Methodist Episcopal Zion, 412,328, gain 135,130; Colored Methodist Episcopal church of America, 215,710.

WHEELS BEGIN TO HUM IN PALESTINE

(By Associated Press)

Jerusalem, Mar. 7.—Palestine is beginning to arouse from its long industrial slumber. Manufacturing industries are springing up rapidly in this country which could not boast a single industry for hundreds of years under the Turkish regime. Now the new industries are beginning to compete strongly with foreign manufacturers.

This change is attributed here to Zionist capital and enterprise. Carpet weaving perhaps ranks first in importance among the new industries. The pro-Jerusalem society has a number of looms which turn out some remarkably beautiful work. Jewish colonists from Persia have also set up a number of factories which make carpet patterns for foreign consumption. The United States is their chief buyer for the present.

The manufacture of house and office furniture is making rapid strides. Two large Zionist factories are now busy producing all the wooden requisites of office and home for Palestine as well as for Egypt.

Cigar-making, pearl button manufacturing, wine producing, candy, brush and basket making are among the many other enterprises which are being developed. Their promoters say they are more than satisfied with results, despite the general depression in trade prevailing the world over.

Two existing handicrafts, however, seem to arrest the rapid growth. The first is lack of electricity to run the machinery. The second is the lack of suitable machinery, tools and sheds to facilitate the handling of the sudden increase in exports and imports.

The Rutenberg scheme for generating electricity from the River Jordan which has already been approved by the government in London and on which work is to start soon is expected to eliminate these handicrafts.

The administration is handling its financial affairs in a more conservative manner. The first of its kind in Palestine is being arranged for the first week in April.

MINING FOR OIL NEAR RAVENNA

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—"Oil mines" may be as thick as oil wells in many sections of the state if the experiment now in progress at Ravenna, Estill county, proves successful and profitable, according to Dr. Willard R. Jilison, State Geologist of Kentucky. This new method of producing crude oil is outlined in the Sixth Geological Survey just published.

The process as developed and projected probably is new for the entire United States, according to Dr. Jilison, though one company in Ventura county, California, has experimented along this line. Similar methods also have been used in Europe, particularly in Alsace. The Kentucky "boom" has been sunk in close to an old producing well on the Hudson farm within the confines of Ravenna township.

The Estill county project consists of the sinking of a shaft 8 by 12 feet to a depth of 150 feet through the Devonian black (Chattanooga) shale to the underlying "sand," the Onondaga (coniferous) limestone. The production has averaged about two or three barrels a day in spite of the difficulties attendant on sinking the shaft into the "sand." The experiment has progressed satisfactorily according to Dr. Jilison.

The amount of crude oil produced does not, of course, justify the expenditure necessary to sink a shaft of the size indicated, but the present production is reported to be 100 barrels a day.

Major cars in the United States were responsible for 12,000 barrels and property damage of $1,000,000 in 1920.

garded as only an incident to the development of this property, which was suspended at this point awaiting the installation of larger machinery. It is further the plan of the operators, D. W. R. Knuey, George W. Eastern and John McMin, to drift out to the oil sand a triangular tunnel 6 feet high and 7 feet at the base to a distance of one thousand feet in a north-easterly direction from the main shaft. This prospective tunnel will drive slightly upward as it goes forward with the result, which is outlined that oil will be produced into it and find its way by gravity to a sump at the base of the main shaft, where it is proposed to take it out by pumps, according to the report.

It is the plan of the operators to enlarge the base of the shaft into a room 12 feet square and 7 feet high and retort on the ground the oil impregnated limestone or "sand" out from the 100-foot tunnel.

The oil "sand" carries about 25 per cent of oil. The experiment has progressed satisfactorily according to Dr. Jilison.

BETTER ADVERTISING FOR BETTER BUSINESS

LIKE anything worth while, advertising requires patience and persistent effort.

Gold Medal Flour wasn't always well known. Neither was the Victrola, Nor Coca Cola. Nor Beaver Board. When you advertise, make up your mind to keep it up. Don't be discouraged if it seems to take time. Don't start and quit.

Give your advertising a chance. The long, steady pull is always more effective than short spurts with rests in between.

Have confidence. That's one of the elements of advertising success.
